

An Australian Government Initiative

national science week

BRAIN BREAK

Does your organisation employ scientists, science teachers or lecturers, or rely on scientific knowledge for its projects and products? Or are you simply interested in celebrating National Science Week?

Get involved in National Science Week by holding a Brain Break morning tea for your staff.

What is Brain Break?

Brain Break is a state-wide morning tea for anyone in the Tasmanian community wanting to celebrate science during National Science Week (14 - 22 August 2010).

*All those who register to host a Brain Break morning tea will receive a FREE National Science Week pack

This pack includes posters, bookmarks, quiz questions, simple hands-on science activities.

When: Any time in the week Monday 16 - Friday 20 August 2010

Where: Your organisation's staff room, office, garden or kitchen

PRIZES

ABC or Socrates gift vouchers will be awarded to the best photo illustrating:

- Your organisation enjoying their morning tea ($100 voucher)
- The best creative cooking entry related to science ($150 voucher)
- Additional prizes will be awarded to runners up

FREE National Science Week Pack

To receive your free National Science Week pack register details of your Brain Break morning tea on our website:

http://www.utas.edu.au/set/register/index_break.html

For additional enquires please:

Email: set.enquiries@utas.edu.au OR

Phone: 6226 2125

